

Nigeria

Registered location

Ltd.

Private company by shares

11

Registered service objectives

360

Integrated project support

Company Overview

Wisblomirad Engineering Limited is a Nigerian private company limited by shares, providing integrated engineering and construction solutions for government, industrial, and commercial sector clients.

Positioning

The company is structured to handle consultancy, engineering management, construction, maintenance, project management, quality assurance, research, planning, and general engineering assignments across Nigeria.

Value Promise

Engineering Excellence. Building Sustainable Solutions. Wisblomirad supports clients with technical review, reliable procurement processes, professional project controls, and auditable quality documentation.

General Engineering Consultancy

Technical advisory, feasibility support, site assessment, due diligence, and practical engineering recommendations for project owners and investors.

Engineering Management

Coordination of engineering inputs, documentation, discipline interfaces, stakeholder communication, technical reporting, and decision tracking.

Engineering Quality Control and Assurance

Inspection and test planning, material verification, workmanship review, non-conformance control, corrective actions, and handover documentation.

Engineering Procurement

Vendor evaluation, technical procurement support, material and equipment procurement scheduling, supplier tracking, and delivery coordination.

Engineering Research

Applied technical studies, field data review, method improvement, performance review, and evidence-based engineering recommendations.

Engineering Construction

Construction delivery support for engineering works requiring planning, supervision, safety, completion documentation.

Construction Planning and Budgeting

Programme planning, budget support, resource forecasting, phasing strategy, construction visibility for project stakeholders.

Project Management

Professional management of schedules, budgets, risks, procurement actions, reporting, project meetings, and closeout.

Engineering Maintenance

Maintenance planning, technical inspections, corrective work coordination, facility reliability, improvement, and maintenance documentation.

Building Construction

Construction support for commercial, institutional, industrial, and private developments with organized site control and quality records.

General Engineering Services

Flexible technical support for assignments that require engineering review, coordination, implementation, supervision, or documentation.

Engineering Expertise

Multi-disciplinary capability across consultancy, management, procurement, construction, research, and general engineering services.

Quality Assurance

Structured inspection plans, material checks, quality records, technical review, and action follow-up.

Professional Project Management

Schedules, budgets, risk registers, progress reports, action logs, procurement tracking and discipline.

Reliable Procurement Processes

Vendor coordination, technical submittals, delivery tracking, documentation supply chain visibility.

Construction Excellence and Safety

Field coordination, safe work planning, HSE routines, completion checks, and sustainable outcomes.

Contact

Registered Location: Nigeria Email: info@wisblomiradengineering.com Phone: +234 800 000 0000